

Meat Processors Host the 2017 Hands Across the Rockies Meat Processors Convention

Meat Processors in Colorado and Wyoming attended the Hands Across the Rockies Meat Processors Convention to take advantage of hands on demonstrations and presentations to support the meat processing business. Additionally, representatives from supply companies were invited to the convention to showcase new equipment or supplies, and to discuss any supply needs that meat processors may have. Other events include a raffle, sharpest knife contest and other social events, the earnings from such events are utilized to fund scholarships for undergraduate or graduate students pursuing a career in Meat Science attending either Colorado State University or the University of Wyoming. The convention also allowed meat processors to submit cured meat entries into the cured meat contest to showcase and compete with products that these processors made at their local meat processing businesses. The convention rounded out with a banquet highlighting results of the processed meat contest, sharpest knife contest results, raffle drawing results and the announcement of the sharpest cleaver award, presented to Dave Satterwhite from Brother's Custom Processing.

Brother's Custom Processing in Craig, Colorado, were excited to host the 2017 Hands Across the Rockies Meat Processors Convention April 6th-9th.

Brother's Custom Processing is owned and operated by father and daughter, Dave and Angie Satterwhite along with 10 full time employees and numerous other employees during their peak fall season. They have been in full operation since 2004 in their current location. Brothers Custom Processing is a meat processing business that processes beef, pork, and lamb for retail sales, custom processing orders and USDA inspected processing. Additionally, this business processes animals from 6 county fairs and processes wild game during the fall and early winter season when hunting season peaks. Brothers Custom Processing operates a retail store offering fresh and frozen meat cuts and processed meats, seafood, a variety of seasoning and sauces, cheese and combination packs of seasoning and fat for customers who prefer to do their own wild game processing. Additionally, Brothers Custom Processing operates a catering service for large parties or events. Their menu for catering includes brisket, pork loin, pork ribs and prime rib dinners. Brothers Custom Processing has won several awards for their meat products at the American Association of Meat Processors (AAMP) and from the previous Hands Across the Rockies Conventions. They are located at 383 East 1st Street, Craig, Colorado, and Brother's Custom Processing can be contacted at (970) 824-3855. Visit their website or Facebook page!

Steamboat Meat and Seafood in Steamboat, Colorado, were excited to help co-host the 2017 Hands Across the Rockies Meat Processors Convention. During the convention, Steamboat Meat and Seafood graciously agreed to offer processors and suppliers attending the convention a tour of their establishment and prepare appetizers for the convention attendees. Steamboat Meat and Seafood has been operating in the area since 1982, and in the current location since 1999. Owner Bill Hamill and Operations Manager Chip Jespersen have developed a specialty business along numerous other employees. They have the capability to process USDA inspected wholesale meat cuts and processed meat. They also process numerous FDA inspected seafood options. Steamboat Meat and Seafood has an extensive pasta making component to their business making several different types of pasta including at least 20 types of flavored ravioli. Their business processes any custom orders, but also operates a specialized retail store and catering business. Their gourmet specialty grocery store offers fresh and frozen meat cuts, specialty sausages, other processed meat and seafood products, multiple types of cheese, a deli line and sandwich menu, a variety of pasta that they make, sushi ingredients, a variety of oils, vinegars, seasonings and ingredients for numerous Asian cuisine dishes. Additionally, they operate a catering business providing catered meals from a diverse menu for the Steamboat area. They are located at 1030 Yampa Street, Steamboat Springs, Colorado, and Steamboat Meat & Seafood Company can be contacted at (970) 879-3504. Visit their website or Facebook page! Check out Brother's Custom Processing and Steamboat Meat & Seafood Company!